TOUR OVERVIEW

Spiti Valley: One of the remotest places in Himachal Pradesh, at one time, known as the most treacherous place to visit, has now become the heart of remote travels! One will be visiting monasteries, landscape, culture, night photography and much more.

With improvement in the roads and mobile network, travel to remote Spiti valley has really picked up in the past few years. Decent camps & home stays with good hotels have come up, making it a comfortable stay all the way. From staying at a heritage hotel, to camping in the apple orchards, to staying at a well-known camp on top of a lake, to visiting 1000 year old monastery, the photography and memories captured have no limits! Try their local cuisines to good restaurants at amazing spots, will keep you happy throughout the trip!

Locations for landscape and night photography have already been scouted and tried out. Some spots even provide 360 degree views of the Trans Himalayas and Spiti valley!

Visiting the highest post office in the world or lunch at highest motorable restaurant add in the charm!

Many Buddha statues and stupas provide amazing subjects to timelapse and night photography.

Go for a day trek in the various known trails! Take your 4X4 to the off road tracks or the river and try out your skills! Many outdoor activities are also arranged during the summer!

Day 1-

Land in Chandigarh or Shimla and drive to Sangla Valley. Stay the night in a camp built around Baspa river and apple orchards. Enjoy sitting around a bonfire and savoring local cuisines!

Day 2-

Wake up to pristine scenery around the camp and go for a short hike around the camp towards the village and enjoy rugged trails. Build up your stamina for the trip ahead. After lunch, go to Chitkul village for its rustic beauty! This will be your second night here for acclimatization!

Day 3-

Drive to Nako village and stay in tents for a night overlooking the magnificent mountains of Trans Himalayas. The Nako lake is a famous place to walk around and check out the local markets. Visit the Nako monastery. At night, perfect place for night photography around the Nako lake.

Day 4-

Leave for Kaza . The drive itself will mesmerize you with God's creations and it is a life time experience. First the Sutlej river will accompany you along the road and then the Spiti river guides you to Spiti Valley. We will have small stops to take pictures and refreshments. You will also stop 47 kilometers short of Kaza at Tabo village. It has the oldest monastery of the region, 990 A.D. You can have your lunch in Tabo and move to Kaza from there. In Kaza, you will be staying at a comfortable hotel overlooking the Spiti valley.

Day 5 & 6-

Drive to Kibber, Langza and Komic to see beauty and effort to inhabit such high grounds and landmarks. The highest post office is located there. The highest motorable restaurant is also there. These areas are also famous for its monasteries! One can send postcard from there to the loved ones. The landscape has a magnificent view. If you are lucky, you will see wildlife also. Many bird species are also spotted there. Key monastery is another prominent destination. Visit the market in Kaza and interact with the locals.

Day 7-

After breakfast, checkout from the Kaza hotel and drive to Rampur. Stay in a heritage hotel. Lunch will be on the way.
